

Belt was tested from carabineer loop to bottom of belt. The buckle cut through the stiches that hold the two layers of webbing together. Notice the first peak on the graph this was a reinforced line of stitching. The second peak is where the box stich started. The following peaks are from the x stiches running along the belt. Max weight held 2768.16 lbs.